Len Remia has joined Cleveland Clinic Florida in Weston as head of the Section of Sports Medicine, team ortho-pedist for the Florida Panthers hockey team, and a staffer in the Department of Orthopedic Surgery.

Before joining Cleveland Clinic, Remia had a private practice with Orthopedic Specialists in Falmouth, Mass. In the past, he was on staff with Harvard Vanguard Medical Group in Boston.

Officers named

The Broward County Community Development Corp. Inc. has named its officers for the fiscal year 2003 term. They are: John J. Macchia of Wachovia Bank in Fort Lauderdale as chairman; Stacey Lambert of Nova Southeastern University in Davie as vice chairwoman; Carol A. Molnar with Comerica Bank in Coral Springs as treasurer; and Linda Mullis with Rosen & Eichner Esq PA of Weston as secretary.

Of note ...

Christopher Caddell of Aventura recently joined the Miramar Park of Commerce as leasing assistant. He previously was with the valuation advisory services department at Cushman & Wakefield of Florida Inc. in Fort Lauderdale.

The Palace Management Group named Fran Ware and Suzanne Blaut as sales directors at The Palace at Weston. The retirement community is being built on the corner of Weston Road and Emerald Park Circle.

CABI Developers in Aventura appointed Gabrielle Marcus to head its public relations and marketing efforts. CABI Developers is a subsidiary of GICSA, a real estate development company.

Summer L. McDonald, immigration attorney with Hackley and Serrone PA in Weston, was appointed liaison for the American Immigration Lawyer Association's South Florida Young Lawyer division chapter.
